
GOD AT THE MOVIES (MEDIA)

In this course, students will explore the intersection of religious faith and culture through the medium of film. Specifically, students will study the history, language, and significance of film in order to better understand their faith, culture, and GOD's role in the world. If you are someone who loves watching, thinking, and talking about movies, then this course is for you.